

THE CLASSICS

LOOKING FOR AN OLD-SCHOOL DINING EXPERIENCE? LOOK NO FURTHER

By Eden Bernal, Concierge, W City Center Hotel

Lou Mitchell's A diner destination near Union Station that's been serving up comfort-food breakfasts and lunches since 1923. Added bonus? Free Milk Duds for the ladies. (p.26)

Chicago Chop House Located in a restored brownstone, the walls are graced with historical and nostalgic photos of Chicago, including famous gangsters and mayors. (p.40)

Chicago Pizza & Oven Grinder Sitting across the street from the scene of the St. Valentine's Day Massacre, this Victorian-esque restaurant is known for its individual pizza pot pies (p.24)

Gene and Georgetti Business types hobnob with loyal regulars at this institution. You might even spot a famous face—many celebrities have eaten here and have the photos to prove it. (p.40)