CS Modern Man Dinner

Gene & Georgetti
November 15, 2022

In partnership with Garrison Brothers, CS hosted an exclusive dinner to celebrate the 2022 Modern Man honorees, as featured in the November issue.

The evening took place at the iconic Gene & Georgetti steakhouse, and kicked off with a cocktail hour in the restaurant's Library room. Guests then moved into The Chicago Room to enjoy a five-course, Garrison-inspired menu curated by Chef Cristiano Bassani.

WHERE TO EAT

Frontera Grill

Frontera was born out of owner/TV host/Top Chef Master Rick Bayless' devotion to the delights of regional Mexican cuisine, and is a go-to for delectable fare. 449 N. Clark St., rickbayless.com

Tzucó

Chef Carlos Gaytán helms this contemporary Mexican stunner, which has foodies cheering over exquisite dishes like tuna ceviche verde with grilled tomatillo aguachile, cucumber, red onions, avocado and choco. 720 N. State St., tzucocom

Bavette's Bar & Bocuf

This hip, European-style steakhouse features a retro-cool atmosphere with an oh-so-flattering candlelit atmosphere. While there are plenty of terrific steaks, it's the non-red meat offerings—baked crabeake and spiced fried chicken—that top its must-have list. 218 W. Kinzie St., bavettessteakhouse.com

Gene & Georgetti

Founded in 1941, this charming restaurant is Chicago's oldest steakhouse. Soak up the history as you dine on filets, strips, ribeyes and Italian specialties like veal scaloppine. 500 N. Franklin St., geneandgeorgetti.com

Siena Tavern

Top Chef fave Fabio Viviani, along with the DineAmic Team, is behind this happening River North spot that features rustic Italian food in addition to a crudo/pizza bar and an expansive lounge area. 51 W. Kinzie St., sienatavern.com
